

For Immediate Release:
July 11, 2005

Media Contact:
Elizabeth Rockwell – (305) 375-1881
erock@miamidade.gov

CITIZENS COMMITTEES COME TOGETHER FROM THE TRI-COUNTY AREA
to learn about regional transportation projects...

Miami, FL. – The citizen advisory committees of the Miami-Dade, Broward, and Palm Beach County Metropolitan Planning Organizations (MPO) are joining together for the first time to host a meeting to learn about transportation projects that will have a regional impact. The MPOs are the agencies responsible for their respective transportation planning process.

Various transportation agencies, in the region, will be presenting major projects that cross all three county boundaries giving the committees and the audience a chance to make comments and ask questions about them. Citizens are encouraged to attend and participate.

Who: Miami-Dade, Broward, and Palm Beach County Metropolitan Planning Organizations' (MPO) Citizen Advisory Committees

What: The MPOs' Citizen Advisory Committees are inviting residents in Miami-Dade, Broward, and Palm Beach to a meeting discussing the current and future transportation plans that transcend the tri-County area.

When: Wednesday, July 13, 2005 at 4:00 PM

Where: Tri-Rail's Administrative Offices, 800 N.W. 33rd Street, Suite 100, Pompano Beach, FL 33064

Why: To encourage citizens to become familiar and get involved with the transportation planning process.

If you would like more information regarding the meeting please call the Miami-Dade MPO at (305) 375-4507 or visit our website at www.miamidade.gov/mpo.

###

COMMUNICATIONS

Stephen P. Clark Center
111 NW 1st Street Suite 2510 Miami, Florida 33128-1986
305-375-2836 or Fax 305-375-3968